We hereby agree to pay any applicable fees for searching for, reviewing, or copying the records in the amount of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000). If it is estimated that your total fees in this matter would exceed $1,000, please advise me in writing of the estimated amount of such fees, the basis on which they have been calculated, and any applicable procedure for seeking a waiver of such fees on the grounds that fulfillment of this Freedom of Information Act request would be in the public interest.

If all or any portion of this Freedom of Information Act request is denied in whole or in part, please advise me in detail in writing of the reasons for such denial and the specific exemption or exemptions to disclosure that you believe to be applicable, and please advise me of the applicable procedures through which I may appeal any such denial.

REF: Mr. Stephen Wilson, FOIA Request

Dear Mr. Matetsky:

This is in response to your letter, dated 14 August 2007, received in the Information Management Services Center of the National Reconnaissance Office (NRO) on 21 August 2007. Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), you are requesting, on behalf of Mr. Wilson, "copies of any and all records in the possession, custody, or control of your agency responsive to the requests set forth below: 1-7) All documents and communications concerning...from March 10, 1994, to date."

We have accepted your request. It will be processed in accordance with the FOIA, as amended, Title 5 U.S.C. § 552.

Since we may not respond within the 20 working days stipulated by the Act, you have the right to consider this as a denial and may appeal to the NRO Appeal Review Panel. It would seem more reasonable, however, to have us continue processing your request and respond as soon as we can. You may appeal any denial of records at that time. Unless we hear from you otherwise, we will assume that you agree, and will proceed on this basis.

The FOIA authorizes federal agencies to assess fees for record services. Pending additional information about your client, you have been placed in the "commercial" category of requesters, which means you are responsible for all charges incurred for search, review and duplication in the processing of this request.

In your request you expressed a willingness to pay fees up to the amount of $1,000. We will notify you if it appears this threshold will be exceeded in processing your request.

NRO APPROVED FOR RELEASE

27 April 2012

Regarding your request for a fee waiver, please be advised that fee waivers or reductions are granted when there is a public interest in disclosure of information, which will contribute significantly to the public's understanding of the operations or activities of the NRO. A decision to waive or reduce fees cannot be made until after any responsive documents to be disclosed have been reviewed for "public interest."

You have the right to appeal this determination by addressing your appeal to the NRO Appeal Authority, 14675 Lee Road, Chantilly, VA 20151-1715 within 60 days of the above date. Should you decide to do this, please explain the basis of your appeal.

If you have any questions, please call the Requester Service Center at (703) 227-9326 and reference case number F07-0101.

Sincerely,

Linda S. Hathaway

This is to follow up on my letter to you dated December 17, 2007, which was written in response to your letter dated August 28, 2007, in reply to my Freedom of Information Act request dated August 14, 2007. A copy of this prior correspondence is enclosed for your convenience.

REF: Mr. Stephen Wilson, FOIA Request

Dear Mr. Matetsky:

This is in response to your letter, dated 14 August 2007, received in the Information Management Services Center of the National Reconnaissance Office (NRO) on 21 August 2007. Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), you are requesting, on behalf of Mr. Wilson, "copies of any and all records in the possession, custody, or control of your agency responsive to the requests set forth below: 1-7) All documents and communications concerning...from March 10, 1994, to date."

We have accepted your request. It will be processed in accordance with the FOIA, as amended, Title 5 U.S.C. § 552.

Since we may not respond within the 20 working days stipulated by the Act, you have the right to consider this as a denial and may appeal to the NRO Appeal Review Panel. You have the right to appeal this determination by addressing your appeal to the NRO Appeal Authority, 14675 Lee Road, Chantilly, VA 20151-1715 within 60 days of the above date. Should you decide to do this, please explain the basis of your appeal.

The other three records, Tabs D, E, and F, are referred to you for your review and direct response to the requester. We have treated these documents for NRO equities.

(U) NRO equities have been redacted in documents (Tabs D, E, and F) pursuant to FOIA exemptions:

(b) (3) which allows the withholding of information prohibited from disclosure by statute, 10 U.S.C. § 424 which states: "Except as required by the President or as provided in subsection (c), no provision of law shall be construed to require the disclosure of (1) The organization or any function . . . (2) . . . number of persons employed by or assigned or detailed to any such organization or the name, official title, occupational series, grade, or salary of any such person . . . (b) Covered Organizations . . . the National Reconnaissance Office" and

(b) (6) which applies to records which, if released, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of individuals.

I am moving forward with [REDACTED] b3, b6 clear direction below (and from the table he nicely completed for me) per direction in our staff meeting yesterday. Passing to you [REDACTED] b3, b6 comments since he didn't copy the group in his decision-making... Many referrals...

(U) [REDACTED] b3, b6
(U//~~FOUO~~) Here's the problem--when Mr. Rixse did this work he was assigned to the NRO for administrative purposes but he was leading a Standing Interagency Group for Foreign Satellites which was trying to coordinate the positions of many (not sure if all) agencies, especially the IC and DoD who had many concerns with how the Commercial Space Act of 1997, the Land Remote Sensing Policy Act and PDD 23 would play together. Therefore, many working group members from other agencies were involved and this group of documents reflects that participation. If there was a follow-on group I would recommend that they look at the documents. Perhaps the closest group is the Remote Sensing Policy Subcommittee (RSCOM) of which Mike Brennan is the Vice Chairman and [REDACTED] b3, b6 supports. Mike has been out for a while with medical problems I understand.

- (U) Generally, most documents have no NRO equities (with the exception of "D" which has a few classified equities which I have noted in an OS&CI redacted copy in the notebook and should be referred to the agencies I specified). My redactions are less that BPO because I stuck close to NRO equities and did not try to guess whether the other information was still classified.

- (U) The majority of the remaining information is deliberative information, agency/USG position information, and background information on a certain country which is not an NRO equity and therefore impossible to determine if it is releasable.

27 April 2012

Therefore, I am recommending in the table, referral to the originating agency for a releasability decision and for certain classified documents to CIA, NGA and DoS for their determination. I just don't see how NRO can make any determination for these documents, however DOS can assess the State Department position on releasability and CIA and NGA can assess whether the classified information is still classified.
- (U) Other agencies (such as DOJ) can assess their own documents. I don't know what else to suggest. Let me know if you have any questions. Thanks. The notebook is in ^{b3, b6} [redacted] outbox.

(U) Sorry I missed you. The case summary provides a good summary (as it should!) of what was going on in the case. But basically, ^{b3, b6} [redacted] reviewed it and we concluded that BPO-Policy (and folks) did not provide a very good treatment of the documents, therefore leaving questions. We went back and forth with them and after many hours and this was their final product.

(U) If it would help, you can call me and I can come over next week at your convenience to go over this with you, or if it is easier for you to review the treated documents "as is" and comment that is ok too. I placed a table (spreadsheet) at the very end. The table in the very back of the book may help you follow the documents more easily and if you like, you can comment directly on this page. Appreciate ANY help you can lend on this one!

EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

The designation "(b)(1)" applies to information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive Order in the interest of national defense or foreign policy (EO 12958 and DoD Reg 5200.1-R).

Sec 1.4 Classification Categories:

Information may NOT be considered for classification unless it concerns:

- a) military plans, weapons systems, or operations;*
- b) foreign government information;*
- c) intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources or methods, or cryptology;*
- d) foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States including confidential sources;*
- e) scientific, technological, or economic matters relating to the national security;*
- f) United States Government programs for safeguarding nuclear materials or facilities;*
- g) vulnerabilities or capabilities of systems, installations, projects or plans relating to national security;*
- h) weapons of mass destruction.*

The designation "(b)(2)" applies to information which pertains solely to the internal rules and practices of an agency; this exemption has two profiles, "high" and "low". The "high" profile permits withholding of a document which, if released, would allow circumvention of an organization rule, policy, or statute, thereby impeding the agency in the conduct of its mission. The "low" profile permits withholding if there is no public interest in the document, and it would be an administrative burden to process the request.

The designation "(b)(3)" applies to information specifically exempted by a statute establishing a particular criteria for withholding. The language of the statute must clearly state that the information will not be disclosed.

The designation "(b)(4)" applies to information such as trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a company on a privileged or confidential basis which, if released, would result in competitive harm to the company.

The designation "(b)(5)" applies to inter-agency and intra-agency memoranda which are deliberative in nature; this exemption is appropriate for internal documents which are part of the decisionmaking process and contain subjective evaluations, opinions, and recommendations.

The designation "(b)(6)" applies to information release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of individuals.

The designation "(b)(7)" applies to records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes and that (a) could reasonably be expected to interfere with law enforcement proceedings; (b) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or impartial adjudication; (c) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of others; (d) could disclose the identity of a confidential source; (e) could disclose investigative techniques and procedures; or (f) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual.

The designation "(b)(8)" applies to matters that are "contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by or on behalf of or for use of any agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions. (Not used by the NRO.)"

The designation "(b)(9)" applies to geological information and data, including maps, concerning wells. (Not used by the NRO.)

EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

The designation "(b)(1)" applies to information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive Order in the interest of national defense or foreign policy (EO 12958 and DoD Reg 5200.1-R).

Sec 1.5 Classification Categories:

Information may NOT be considered for classification unless it concerns:

- a) military plans, weapons systems, or operations;
- b) foreign government information;
- c) intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources or methods, or cryptology;
- d) foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States including confidential sources;
- e) scientific, technological, or economic matters relating to the national security;
- f) United States Government programs for safeguarding nuclear materials or facilities;
- g) vulnerabilities or capabilities of systems, installations, projects or plans relating to national security.

The designation "(b)(2)" applies to information which pertains solely to the internal rules and practices of an agency; this exemption has two profiles, "high" and "low". The "high" profile permits withholding of a document which, if released, would allow circumvention of an organization rule, policy, or statute, thereby impeding the agency in the conduct of its mission. The "low" profile permits withholding if there is no public interest in the document, and it would be an administrative burden to process the request.

The designation "(b)(3)" applies to information specifically exempted by a statute establishing a particular criteria for withholding. The language of the statute must clearly state that the information will not be disclosed.

The designation "(b)(4)" applies to information such as trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a company on a privileged or confidential basis which, if released, would result in competitive harm to the company.

The designation "(b)(5)" applies to inter-agency and intra-agency memoranda which are deliberative in nature; this exemption is appropriate for internal documents which are part of the decisionmaking process and contain subjective evaluations, opinions, and recommendations.

The designation "(b)(6)" applies to information release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of individuals.

The designation "(b)(7)" applies to records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes and that (a) could reasonably be expected to interfere with law enforcement proceedings; (b) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or impartial adjudication; (c) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of others; (d) could disclose the identity of a confidential source; (e) could disclose investigative techniques and procedures; or (f) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual.

The designation "(b)(8)" applies to matters that are "contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by or on behalf of or for use of any agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions." (Not used by the NRO.)

The designation "(b)(9)" applies to geological information and data, including maps, concerning wells. (Not used by the NRO.)

I do not know why we need a meeting. This is very basic and made very clear in b3, b6 one-on-one FOIA/PA classes.

When you have a document for review, we ask:

- a. that you bracket [] the information that should be removed from the record, and
- b. that you look for NRO equities only.

We don't need what exemptions that you think should be used or suggestions as to where to refer the record - we have that part covered. All we need you to do is the above.

If you have additional questions, please call me.

EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

The designation "(b)(1)" applies to information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive Order in the interest of national defense or foreign policy (EO 12958 and DoD Reg 5200.1-R).

Sec 1.4 Classification Categories:

Information may NOT be considered for classification unless it concerns:

- a) military plans, weapons systems, or operations;*
- b) foreign government information;*
- c) intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources or methods, or cryptology;*
- d) foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States including confidential sources;*
- e) scientific, technological, or economic matters relating to the national security;*
- f) United States Government programs for safeguarding nuclear materials or facilities;*
- g) vulnerabilities or capabilities of systems, installations, projects or plans relating to national security;*
- h) weapons of mass destruction.*

The designation "(b)(2)" applies to information which pertains solely to the internal rules and practices of an agency; this exemption has two profiles, "high" and "low". The "high" profile permits withholding of a document which, if released, would allow circumvention of an organization rule, policy, or statute, thereby impeding the agency in the conduct of its mission. The "low" profile permits withholding if there is no public interest in the document, and it would be an administrative burden to process the request.

The designation "(b)(3)" applies to information specifically exempted by a statute establishing a particular criteria for withholding. The language of the statute must clearly state that the information will not be disclosed.

The designation "(b)(4)" applies to information such as trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a company on a privileged or confidential basis which, if released, would result in competitive harm to the company.

The designation "(b)(5)" applies to inter-agency and intra-agency memoranda which are deliberative in nature; this exemption is appropriate for internal documents which are part of the decisionmaking process and contain subjective evaluations, opinions, and recommendations.

The designation "(b)(6)" applies to information release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of individuals.

The designation "(b)(7)" applies to records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes and that (a) could reasonably be expected to interfere with law enforcement proceedings; (b) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or impartial adjudication; (c) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of others; (d) could disclose the identity of a confidential source; (e) could disclose investigative techniques and procedures; or (f) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual.

The designation "(b)(8)" applies to matters that are "contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by or on behalf of or for use of any agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions. (Not used by the NRO.)"

The designation "(b)(9)" applies to geological information and data, including maps, concerning wells. (Not used by the NRO.)

P&A has completed our review of FOIA F07-0101 and provide explanations of our recommended exemptions. I have asked that BPO/security review P&A's recommendations and provide feed back to us by the end of next week. Upon the completion of the BPO/security review I will make the necessary changes if needed and forward to your office. I noticed that BPO was the only office tasked for this FOIA, does it also need to be review by OGC and OS&C/Counterintelligence? If so do I need to forward it to them? Also who signs the IAO Approval? Leo remembers signing an approval to release form in the past. Since this FOIA was tasked to BPO, should P&A be giving the consent to release or should that come for BPO? Please advise.

Thanks for all your help,

[REDACTED] we will take care of the final review process that includes OGC and OS&CI. This information has a long way to go before it is approved for release.

Your Information Access Officer is [REDACTED] for BPO. She should be signing the form and returning the tasking package to us after she has reviewed.

Thanks so much! Let us know if there's anything else that we can do.

NRO APPROVED FOR RELEASE

27 April 2012

P&A has completed our review of FOIA F07-0101 and provide explanations of our recommended exemptions. I have asked that BPO/security review P&A's recommendations and provide feed back to us by the end of next week. Upon the completion of the BPO/security review I will make the necessary changes if needed and forward to your office. I noticed that BPO was the only office tasked for this FOIA, does it also need to be review by OGC and OS&CI/Counterintelligence? If so do I need to forward it to them? Also who signs the IAO Approval? Leo remembers signing an approval to release form in the past. Since this FOIA was tasked to BPO, should P&A be giving the consent to release or should that come for BPO? Please advise.

Thanks for all your help.

Last we talked, you were trying to connect with Linda Hathaway regarding this case and/or the FOIA process in general. Due to conflicting schedules this may not have occurred. Therefore, I would like to extend to you an invitation to visit us here at Southgate, at your convenience, to better understand the process and perhaps discuss this case in particular so we can hopefully clear up any confusion and best assist you in responding to a FOIA request now and in the future. Also, if it is preferred, we will visit you—again at your convenience.

If you feel you understand and are comfortable with the process and with this FOIA request, please keep us informed of progress periodically on this case and feel free to call me if you have any questions!

For BPO/Policy & Analysis:

When the IART tasks an office to locate records in response to a FOIA request, the office needs to perform a reasonable search of all active, and retired records.

The IART administers the FOIA process only. We are not the custodians of retired records, nor do we have access to the data required to search for another office's retired records. If your office has records that are responsive to the FOIA request that are retired and located in the NRO Records Center, you are responsible for calling those records back to your office. You are the owner of the records and we cannot recalled them for you.

FOIA requires the NRO to perform a reasonable search for responsive records for any request we receive. Responsive records must then be treated for release. Classified and sensitive unclassified information can be withheld (redacted) in accordance with applicable FOIA exemptions. If documents contain reasonably segregable releasable information, the releasable portions of the documents must be released.

As part of the FOIA process, a tasked office needs to search IMOA and other applicable databases for retired records, retrieve any responsive records from the Archive Records Center (ARC), and treat copies of those records for inclusion in the response package for the IART. The retired records should be included with any active documents in a single, complete response to the IART.

If your office has records that are responsive to a FOIA request that are retired and located in the NRO Records Center, you are responsible for calling those records back to your office. You are the owner of the records and we cannot recalled them for you.

Retired records should be included in every FOIA search as part of the "reasonable search" required by law.

In this case, we were under the impression that the BPO response signed by [REDACTED] on 21 September represented the complete search results. We were not made aware that the search was not complete. The IART has to rely on the program offices to be able to locate and retrieve their records, and have them treated by subject matter experts to protect classified information and sensitive unclassified information.

Should you require help in locating your retired records in IMOA, your IMTO, or [REDACTED] in the ARC may be able to assist you. If you have questions about the FOIA process or FOIA requirements, the FOIA staff will be glad to assist in any way they can.

I spoke with [REDACTED] this morning regarding your request. The suspense of close of business by today is not likely to be achieved. [REDACTED] is in the process of coordinating with his fellow co-worker on the West Coast (the author of most of these documents). The coordination needed with the West Coast and the burden of the time difference, and the amount of content to review, plus the additional coordination with BPO security to over look P&A's findings is going to take awhile. We will diligently to provide feedback as so as possible, however, I'm requesting the suspense date/time of close of business on October 26, 2007.

I have been tasked by the IART (Information Access Release Team), to have you or someone from your team to review the attached files, which you provided to me a few weeks ago. You had noted that the documents were CLASSIFIED/FOUO; however, some parts of the documents may qualify, under the FOIA, as unclassified. I need the attached documents to be scrubbed for classified information and provide a hard copy of the scrubbed documents to me. I will then forward to the IART. (SEE EMAIL BELOW)

Please see the attached file, FORM & REQUEST.PDF, page 2, Explanation of Exemptions, for possible exemptions for release under the FIOA. Please contact me with questions.

I would like to have your input back to me by COB, Wednesday, October 16th. Thank you!!

I just finished reviewing the records you sent me in response to subject FOIA from Ira Matetsky. After reviewing the records for responsiveness, we still need clarification regarding the release of these records. It is clear that 3 of the responsive documents are classified and a "deny in part" is in order, however the denial of these along with the remaining documents was not specifically addressed.

As a general rule in FOIA requests, when responsive records are located by a unit, they are reviewed by the subject matter experts for responsiveness and treated, and a reason (rationale) for denial is given. In addition, we ask that you respond with a "clean copy" as well as a "treated copy." I have attached a new Form F07-0101 (with exemption list attached as reference) including initial request from Mr. Matetsky, and all of the documents you forwarded in response. We ask that you please forward again to the subject matter experts and request review for proper classification, treatment, and rationale for denial.

If you have any questions, please give me a call. Thanks!

EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

The designation "(b)(1)" applies to information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive Order in the interest of national defense or foreign policy (EO 12958 and DoD Reg 5200.1-R).

Sec 1.5 Classification Categories:

Information may NOT be considered for classification unless it concerns:

- a) military plans, weapons systems, or operations;*
- b) foreign government information;*
- c) intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources or methods, or cryptology;*
- d) foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States including confidential sources;*
- e) scientific, technological, or economic matters relating to the national security;*
- f) United States Government programs for safeguarding nuclear materials or facilities;*
- g) vulnerabilities or capabilities of systems, installations, projects or plans relating to national security.*

The designation "(b)(2)" applies to information which pertains solely to the internal rules and practices of an agency; this exemption has two profiles, "high" and "low". The "high" profile permits withholding of a document which, if released, would allow circumvention of an organization rule, policy, or statute, thereby impeding the agency in the conduct of its mission. The "low" profile permits withholding if there is no public interest in the document, and it would be an administrative burden to process the request.

The designation "(b)(3)" applies to information specifically exempted by a statute establishing a particular criteria for withholding. The language of the statute must clearly state that the information will not be disclosed.

The designation "(b)(4)" applies to information such as trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a company on a privileged or confidential basis which, if released, would result in competitive harm to the company.

The designation "(b)(5)" applies to inter-agency and intra-agency memoranda which are deliberative in nature; this exemption is appropriate for internal documents which are part of the decisionmaking process and contain subjective evaluations, opinions, and recommendations.

The designation "(b)(6)" applies to information release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of individuals.

The designation "(b)(7)" applies to records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes and that (a) could reasonably be expected to interfere with law enforcement proceedings; (b) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or impartial adjudication; (c) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of others; (d) could disclose the identity of a confidential source; (e) could disclose investigative techniques and procedures; or (f) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual.

The designation "(b)(8)" applies to matters that are "contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by or on behalf of or for use of any agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions. (Not used by the NRO.)"

The designation "(b)(9)" applies to geological information and data, including maps, concerning wells. (Not used by the NRO.)

CASE WORKSHEET (Instructions)

EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

The designation "(b)(1)" applies to information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive Order in the interest of national defense or foreign policy (EO 12958 and DoD Reg 5200.1-R).

Sec 1.5 Classification Categories:

Information may NOT be considered for classification unless it concerns:

- a) military plans, weapons systems, or operations;*
- b) foreign government information;*
- c) intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources or methods, or cryptology;*
- d) foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States including confidential sources;*
- e) scientific, technological, or economic matters relating to the national security;*
- f) United States Government programs for safeguarding nuclear materials or facilities;*
- g) vulnerabilities or capabilities of systems, installations, projects or plans relating to national security.*

The designation "(b)(2)" applies to information which pertains solely to the internal rules and practices of an agency; this exemption has two profiles, "high" and "low". The "high" profile permits withholding of a document which, if released, would allow circumvention of an organization rule, policy, or statute, thereby impeding the agency in the conduct of its mission. The "low" profile permits withholding if there is no public interest in the document, and it would be an administrative burden to process the request.

The designation "(b)(3)" applies to information specifically exempted by a statute establishing a particular criteria for withholding. The language of the statute must clearly state that the information will not be disclosed.

The designation "(b)(4)" applies to information such as trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a company on a privileged or confidential basis which, if released, would result in competitive harm to the company.

The designation "(b)(5)" applies to inter-agency and intra-agency memoranda which are deliberative in nature; this exemption is appropriate for internal documents which are part of the decisionmaking process and contain subjective evaluations, opinions, and recommendations.

The designation "(b)(6)" applies to information release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of individuals.

The designation "(b)(7)" applies to records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes and that (a) could reasonably be expected to interfere with law enforcement proceedings; (b) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or impartial adjudication; (c) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of others; (d) could disclose the identity of a confidential source; (e) could disclose investigative techniques and procedures; or (f) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual.

The designation "(b)(8)" applies to matters that are "contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by or behalf of or for use of any agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions. (Not used by the NRO.)"

The designation "(b)(9)" applies to geological information and data, including maps, concerning wells. (Not used by the NRO.)

28 August 2007

Mr. Ira Brad Matetsky
GANFER & SHORE, LLP

REF: Mr. Stephen Wilson, FOIA Request

Dear Mr. Matetsky:

This is in response to your letter, dated 14 August 2007, received in the Information Management Services Center of the National Reconnaissance Office (NRO) on 21 August 2007. Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), you are requesting, on behalf of Mr. Wilson, "copies of any and all records in the possession, custody, or control of your agency responsive to the requests set forth below: 1-7) All documents and communications concerning...from March 10, 1994, to date."

We have accepted your request. It will be processed in accordance with the FOIA, as amended, Title 5 U.S.C. § 552.

Since we may not respond within the 20 working days stipulated by the Act, you have the right to consider this as a denial and may appeal to the NRO Appeal Review Panel. It would seem more reasonable, however, to have us continue processing your request and respond as soon as we can. You may appeal any denial of records at that time. Unless we hear from you otherwise, we will assume that you agree, and will proceed on this basis.

The FOIA authorizes federal agencies to assess fees for record services. Pending additional information about your client, you have been placed in the "commercial" category of requesters, which means you are responsible for all charges incurred for search, review and duplication in the processing of this request.

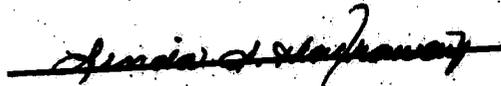

In your request you expressed a willingness to pay fees up to the amount of $1,000. We will notify you if it appears this threshold will be exceeded in processing your request.

Regarding your request for a fee waiver, please be advised that fee waivers or reductions are granted when there is a public interest in disclosure of information, which will contribute significantly to the public's understanding of the operations or activities of the NRO. A decision to waive or reduce fees cannot be made until after any responsive documents to be disclosed have been reviewed for "public interest."

You have the right to appeal this determination by addressing your appeal to the NRO Appeal Authority, 14675 Lee Road, Chantilly, VA 20151-1715 within 60 days of the above date. Should you decide to do this, please explain the basis of your appeal.

If you have any questions, please call the Requester Service Center at (703) 227-9326 and reference case number F07-0101.

Sincerely,

Linda S. Hathaway
Chief, Information Access
and Release Team
