GENERAL INFORMATION

WHAT IS IVMG?

The Interagency Visual Media Group (IVMG) is a forum for Intelligence Community (IC) media professionals to collaborate and share ideas, technical information and production techniques in the field of visual media. IVMG members sponsor the annual IC Media Excellence Awards, which recognizes outstanding achievement in video production, graphic design, cartography, animation and motion media, and photography. There are currently more than 1,200 IVMG members.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO ATTEND THE IVMG CONFERENCE?

All multimedia professionals whether government civilians, military, or contractors who support national security are invited to attend the annual IVMG Conference.

WHEN AND WHERE IS THE 2012 IVMG CONFERENCE?

The 2012 Interagency Visual Media Group Conference will take place Thursday, Oct. 18, 2012, at the Joint Base Anacostia-Bolling Club. The club is located at 50 Theisen St., Joint Base Anacostia-Bolling, Washington, D.C., 20032.

HOW DO I REGISTER FOR THE 2012 IVMG CONFERENCE?

Register online at www.nro.gov/ivmg. For any questions or concerns on registration, e-mail IVMG@nro.mil, or call 703-808-2957.

WHERE SHOULD PARTICIPANTS PARK?

Main parking for the club is located on the south side of the club building and base swimming pool. There is additional parking on Westover Avenue, east of the club, and along McChord Street, north of the club and swimming pool. Do not park in reserved parking. Reserved parking is marked with brown signs placed at the front of the parking spot. Overflow parking is located further north on Westover Avenue, south on Duncan and on Rice Street.
