CORONA - [redacted] noted that initial press reaction to the CORONA press release had been quite favorable in the sense that the separation of the reconnaissance aspects of the WS-117L program had been accomplished.

Mr. Bissell noted that [redacted] of Agency reserve money had been committed to CORONA with an option on [redacted] more, depending on the number of shots finally decided upon. Mr. Bissell also noted that a large-scale and high level meeting will take place in Washington the week of 14 December to consider various ARPA proposals on the program.
