Presidential Tweet On Iranian Facility

Dear Sir or Madam:

Under the federal Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552 (the "FOIA"), I request as a reporter for National Public Radio, Inc. (NPR) that the National Reconnaissance Office make available to me for inspection and copying the following documents (which include electronic records) from August 28, 2019 until September 4, 2019: all documents sent, received or generated by your agency regarding any declassification of the image tweeted by President Trump on 1:44 PM ET on August 30, 2019:

I would also like to receive a copy of the declassified image and any records or code words related to its original level of classification.

As you know, the FOIA provides that if portions of a document are exempt from release, the remainder must be segregated and disclosed. I understand that the agency may redact properly classified information that is still classified, but the agency must leave reasonably segregable unclassified information unredacted (such as authors, recipients, dates, and subject matter headings). Therefore, please send me all non-exempt portions of the records I have requested and justify any deletions by reference to specific exemptions of the FOIA. I reserve the right to appeal your decision to withhold any materials.

Since some of the documents listed above may be more readily available than others, please provide the documents that are available as soon as possible without waiting to provide access to all the documents.

The FOIA provides for waiver or reduction of fees if disclosure could be considered as "primarily benefiting the general public." I am a journalist employed by NPR and intend to use the information I am requesting as a basis for a planned news story, which makes me a "representative of the news media." Therefore, I ask that you waive all duplication fees. If you deny this request, however, and the fees will exceed $250, please notify me of the charges before you fulfill my request so that I may decide whether to pay the fees or appeal your denial of my request for a waiver.

I submit this request in my capacity as a journalist, and this information is time-sensitive. Accordingly, I would appreciate your communicating with me by telephone or email at (202) 513-2446 and gbrumfiel@npr.org, rather than by mail, if you have any questions regarding this request. You can also communicate with anyone in NPR's Legal Department. Micah Ratner is the lead counsel consulting on this request and can be reached at (202) 513-2045 and MRatner@npr.org.

I look forward to receiving your reply within twenty (20) business days, as required by federal law.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation with this FOIA request.

Sincerely,

Geoff Brumfiel
