Good morning, [Redacted]

I received your voicemail yesterday afternoon and wanted to touch base with you on this matter. You stated that the case (SMC Case# 2013-0073-C) has been closed on your end and that SMC concurs with the release of this MOU. However, the NRO did not receive SMC final determination. If you sent the NRO a response, by what means did your response come to us? Typically, we receive a signed letter by an organization notifying us of their final determination. Until we receive your response our case remains open.

Please let me know how I can help. If you have maintained a record of your concurrence, please forward via email as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]

I appreciate the legible copy of the attachment (Mission Assurance Strategic Intent) and your timely response. Now that we have a copy that is easier to read, I am forwarding the attachment to MDA and NASA to review for their equities and respond directly to the NRO. Additionally, I will coordinate the attachment with NRO subject matter experts for our review.

Since you were able to obtain a better copy than what we sent you, please review the attachment along with the MOU, totaling two pages (NRO Document #54) for SMC equities.

Please send your final determination to:

Per our conversation, in reference to FOIA request 2013-00073-C, case number

F12-0139, page 2 of attachment "2013-00073-C Tab 3" looks to be redacted

Good afternoon, [Redacted]

(b)(6)

I recently spoke to you in regards to a FOIA Consultation request for "The History of MOL". However, I was hoping that you could check on another FOIA Consultation request that we sent USAF via SIPRNET on 4/4/2013. The consultation request is attached and should have been redirected to SMC. However, SMC says they never received this request. Is there a way for you to check on the status of this request?

I appreciate your help. Thanks in advance!
