, I added a little bit, but I think your first take makes sense. See what you think of this.....

(U) Request GC way-forward (legal opinion) on the review of the (entire) FY2013 Congressional Budget Justification (CBJ) as requested by Mr. John Greenwald. He is requesting a complete review of the FY2013 CBJ. Please refer to ATT 1 in the link below.

~~(U//FOUO)~~ The NRO has never before conducted a line-by-line review of our entire CBJ. The FY2013 CBJ consists of 343 pages. Please refer to ATT 2 in the link below to view the entire document. We have reviewed and released "unclassified only" portions of the CBJ in the past to Mr. Steven Aftergood. The classified portions have previously been withheld entirely as "nonresponsive" by agreement with Mr. Aftergood. Line-by-line reviews of the classified portions of the document were not required in response to any of Mr. Aftergood's requests for "unclassified portions" of CJBs.

~~(U//FOUO)~~ Mr. Greenwald has declined our offer of this release. Based on Mr. Greenwald's request, the IRRG proceeded with an initial review of the entire document by all the NRO elements.

(b)(5)

[Redacted]

This sample initial treatment can be found at ATT 3 in the link below.

(b)(5)

(b)(5)

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

(U) [Redacted] - just an FYI - gist of this is that past FOIAs for CBJB have all been from same requestor, agreement was made with that requestor in interest of time to redact entire contents of each individual classified portion and release just those unclassified portions. A new requestor for 2013 CBJB will not accept prior redaction approach, and instead wants all segregable information - not an inconsequential task given the program and budget details contained within. 130 pages have been treated - and not consistently - by the program offices.

Hi [Redacted]

(U) This has actually been a longstanding issue. Most IC agencies do not release any of their CJBs, but we all know that NRO has released the unclassified portions for many years. ODNI releases the unclassified versions of theirs as well.

~~(U//FOUO)~~ Since there has not been any discussion on this for quite some time, what I would like to do is talk to the attorneys here and also folks from our CFO to see if there is an issue that we need to address as a community. I will start the ball rolling on that today and let you know what happens. I suspect that we may want to have a meeting with IC FOIA officers on this.

Dear [redacted]

(b)(3)

(U) I'm hoping that you can answer a question for me or point me to the right person on your staff who can.

~~(U//FOUO)~~ The NRO, like the CIA and probably other members of the IC, received and responded to a FOIA request from the National Security Archives, asking for the unclassified portions of recent CJBs. The NRO FOIA team complied. The CIA FOIA group (per [redacted] at CIA) with the advice of their attorneys, chose to deny their CJB in full.
(b)(3) 50 USC 13507

~~(U//FOUO)~~ Now, Mr. Greenwald has submitted a FOIA request to the NRO (and, possibly, other IC entities), asking for the entirety of the NRO's FY2013 CJB [redacted]

(b)(5)

~~(U//FOUO)~~ Should I be concerned, do you think? If not, I'll advise my FOIA team to keep on with their review in response to Mr. Greenwald [redacted] and perhaps we can discuss this further.

Good Morning [Redacted]

(b)(3)

Since this is a first-time request for the entire CBBJ, and I am not getting consistent treatments from the various offices, the plan is to incorporate the treatments as provided by the offices, and then it will move forward to final review by OS&CI-[Redacted]

(b)(5)

[Redacted] After final review treatment is incorporated, the IRRG will forward the "final treatment" to all the offices for a last view. This will NOT be an opportunity to re-treat by the offices (that is happening now), but if they have any issues regarding final treatment by OS&CI—they will direct their questions and comments directly to them who will direct the IRRG. That is the plan as it currently stands—which may change with our gov direction when we approach this phase. Hope this clarifies!

Thanks for your thorough approach to this wonderful project!

Hi Patty,

Below is a link to the two, subject Greenwald FOIA requests for two videos:

- 1) "40 Years of Reconnaissance" (Keep the Peace Alive)
- 2) "NRO - The Nation's Eyes and Ears in Space"

The first one is actually an older version, which we provided him since it was titled exactly as he requested - "40 Years of Reconnaissance." It has since been renamed, "Keep the Peace Alive," and updated and approved in a prepub review later, but the "40 Years..." title had been dropped in the front footage.

The second one consisted of 3 versions—which we provided him (since he had requested all versions), but #2 was the latest as approved in a prepub review in 2010.

I am preparing a download transfer form to upload these two videos to our NRO.gov site per our case meeting discussions. (Note that these are only 2 of several videos that have been approved in prepub reviews.) Link to the 2 videos follow:

(U) Request F14-0097 (MOL pictures) received 2 July 2014, placed in QUEUE by [Redacted]

(b)(3)

(U) 10 September 2014 - We received a FOIA request from Mr. Greenwald for the contents of the F14-0097 case file. At the time of his request, the only things in the case file are the ARTT entry info, and a copy of the responsive documents that were originally released to another requester on 10 June 2014. [Redacted] pulled F14-0097 from the QUEUE for review.

11 September 2014 - (U) determined that F14-0097 is a duplicate of the completed F14-0087 request. Note: The cover email for the F14-0087 response (26 August) lists "F14-0097 Response" on the Subject line. However, the body of the email identifies the case number (correctly) as F14-0087, and the correct case number is included twice in the attached response letter. It was also determined that when the F14-0097 request was received, it was not acknowledged to the requester. His only information re: F14-0097 would be in the context of the typo in the F14-0087 email.

(U) I suggest that we:

- 1) Notify Mr. Greenwald that we are administratively close F14-0097 as a duplicate request; and
- 2) Respond to his request for the F14-0097 processing info (new case F14-0139), by providing a treated copy of the ARTT entry info, and a link (again) to the responsive documents on NRO.gov. (as an exact duplicate of those in the case file.) --The hardcopy documents and the one-page ARTT entry represent the entire case file content at the time of his F14-0139 request.

(U) Component responses come back to the IRRG, via NMIS. Before anything goes out the door to the requester, we administer a thorough review process. We prefer to have the responsive documents attached to the TIER response. At this point in the process, the media format doesn't matter. If hard copy docs can be scanned, that is a big help. We are remotely located, so picking up hard copy isn't a very viable option.

How should we compile when sending to John Greenwald? It looks like it all needs to be on the low-side, sent to his email, or hard copy via a CD-ROM or DVD. We may have to scan some of the complaint cards (or re-type them), etc.

(U) Here is Part 1 [Redacted] reviewed, and then I reviewed. I think the only thing you'll need to do to double-check us is to make sure that the proper exemption code is on each redaction.

[Redacted] (b)(3)
(b)(5)

[Redacted] carefully compared our review to the released version, so that was two sets of eyes for that (yours and hers).

(U//FOUO) Please let me know if you have questions. You'll see the file as [Redacted] (b)(3)
