Good morning [Redacted]

I apologize for our continued delay in sending you our response to this consultation. Our OGC needs to clear the response before Security sends it to you, and the only individual in that office with clearance to look at it is out until 7/15. I'm hoping we can have this wrapped up next week.

Thanks,

Good morning [Redacted] we are working on coordinating the response back to you regarding the below-referenced consultation. We hope to send it to you in the next few days. Would you kindly provide us with a secure fax number to which our security office may send it?

Thanks,

Good Afternoon [Redacted]

Unfortunately, we are not the originators of the document and therefore cannot portion mark it. We can identify which portions we want [Redacted] to review and only send you those portions. [Redacted] will still need to conduct a review for classified [Redacted] equities.

Another option would be to work with [Redacted] (or his backfill), who conducts the [Redacted] declassified review for classified documents.

Please let us know how you would like us to proceed.

Thank you,

Good afternoon [Redacted]

Thank you for speaking with [Redacted] and myself today. As we discussed, it would be extremely helpful if NRO is able to apply portion markings to paragraphs involving [Redacted] within the document sent to us for consultation. This will greatly assist us in performing our internal consultations and processing for this request. We will wait to hear back from you about this. In the meantime we've assigned this tracking [Redacted] in our system.

(b)(3)

Thanks again!
