

Multi-Function Communications ASIC BAA

Statement of Work for the

Multi-Function Encrypting Communications ASIC
(MFC)
Study

Solicitation No: NRO000-16-R-0016

Prepared by

General Dynamics Mission Systems
Scottsdale, Arizona

Revision -
12 August 2016

Multi-Function Communications ASIC BAA

- 1. Introduction..... 3
- 2. Scope..... 3
- 3. Background / References 3
 - 3.1. NRO standards document compliance 3
 - 3.2. Reference documents 3
- 4. Tasks 3
 - 4.1. Function 4
 - 4.2. Content..... 4
- 5. Deliverables 4
- 6. General Requirements 4
 - 6.1. Technical reviews..... 4
 - 6.2. Program Management 4

Multi-Function Communications ASIC BAA

(b)(4)
(b)(3)

3.2. Reference documents

No external compliance or reference documents are required.

4. Tasks

The contractor shall perform studies and analyses to determine a viable set of security and functional requirements and perform a study using best engineering practices, to determine the

Multi-Function Communications ASIC BAA

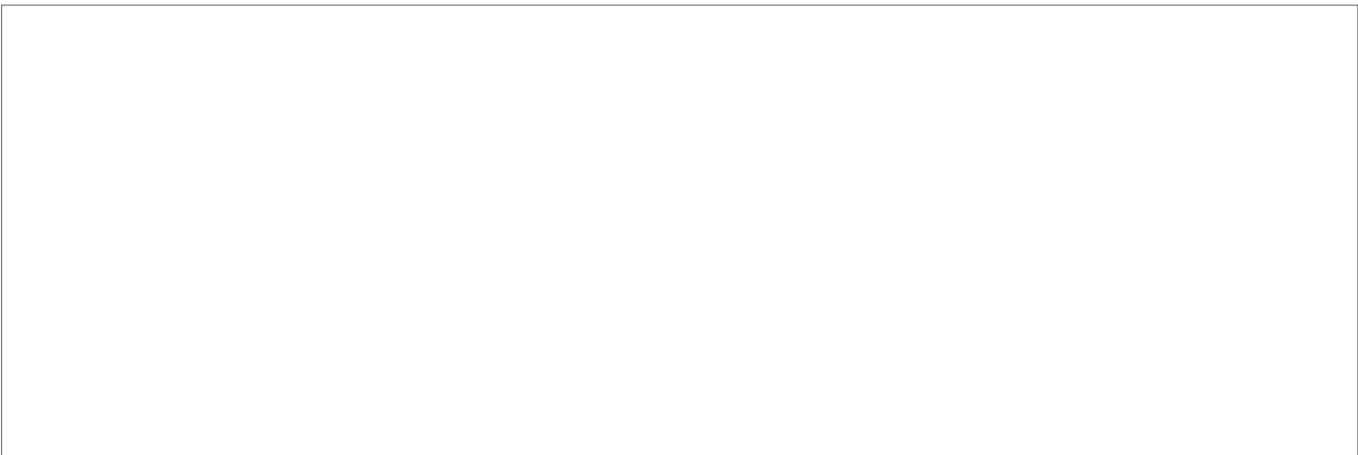

(b)(3)
(b)(4)

5. Deliverables

No deliverables beyond those listed in the CDRL are required. No hardware or software is deliverable under this contract.

6. General Requirements

This section describes the basic contractual requirements for this SOW.

(b)(3)
(b)(4)

Multi-Function Communications ASIC BAA

(b)(3)
(b)(4)