In a memorandum to the Secretary of the Navy on 7 Oct	ob ēr
1970, Lagreed that the Soviet threat warranted an augmentation	$\mathbf{of}_{.7}$	2		1.
POPPY facilities to provide ocean surveillance support to the N	(, · · · =		i	Ϊ.
Our organizations are presently implementing these augmentation		 		1
by expanding the facilities	COMP			1
Additional facility expansion is planned beginn	ing /es		سرد
in FY 72. Recently I directed my staff to take the necessary ac	tions			4
to provide the Navy, on a test and demonstration basis, ocean su	rveillance data from other NRP systems. Planning for this test is n	P* (): 72
underway.		1

In addition, I propose that the following areas be address	ssed
before committing additional funds for an ocean surveillance cap
before committing additional funds for an ocean surveillance cap	antituy.

a. Determination of the Navy's over-all ocean surveillance requirement and a sensible mix of conventional to overhead systems.

b. NRO evaluation of alternate feasible ocean surveillance systems.

I feel that with these steps we are moving toward an initial ocean surveillance capability, while at the same time devoting our efforts to a more thorough and longer range solution.
