

NRO Begins Registration for Annual Technology Forum

July 31, 2001

The 9th annual National Reconnaissance Office Technology Forum will be held at NRO Headquarters in Chantilly, Va. Oct. 16-17.

The NRO's Advanced Systems and Technology Directorate will present programs aimed at revolutionizing global reconnaissance from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. each day. The forum is for established and potential contractors, U.S. government laboratories and agencies. Sessions are classified and are open to U.S. citizens only with the appropriate security clearances. A conference fee will be charged and advanced reservations are required because space is limited. Eligible participants can register on-line at <http://westfieldevents.com/techforum> or call 1-800-306-6990, ext. 6209.
