2016 National Counterintelligence and Security Awards

I am pleased to announce the recipients of the 2016 National Counterintelligence and Security Awards under the Industrial Security - Team category is the National Reconnaissance Office (NRO) [redacted]

(b)(3)

[redacted] The award will be presented at a ceremony on 26 July 2016 in Bethesda, Maryland.

The Director of the National Counterintelligence and Security Center established the National Counterintelligence and Security Awards in 2009. Twelve categories were created to recognize deserving individuals or teams who, in a joint environment made significant contributions to the Intelligence Community counterintelligence and security mission.

The members of the [redacted] worked tirelessly to develop exceptional, multiple-disciplinary solutions to significantly enhance the security, counterintelligence awareness, and information assurance capabilities of a cleared defense contractor. The [redacted] collective efforts epitomized the application of innovative policies, practices, and technology to protect classified information developed by or entrusted to U.S. industry.
