Dear Mr. Greenewald:

This is in response to your 21 August 2016 correspondence regarding your request, pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), for "the NRO IBS-S Overview...;" the NRO's initial response to that request, and our response to your subsequent appeal of our initial determination.

In our 26 July 2016 response to your appeal of our initial determination, we explained that a second search was conducted "in all NRO components where the record would reasonably be expected to exist, and we...included active and retired records in our search..." We also explained that "by responding that we are unable to locate the responsive document, we are not asserting that the document did not exist at the time that the GeoLite Intellipedia entry originated."

(b)(5)

As we advised in the response to your appeal, you are entitled to a judicial review of our determination in a United States District Court in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 552, as amended; or you may wish to pursue mediation services through the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS). As part of the 2007 FOIA amendments, OGIS was created to offer mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA (not Privacy Act) requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. Using OGIS services does not affect your right to pursue litigation. You may contact OGIS in any of the following ways:

To whom it may concern,

This is a non-commercial request made under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 5 U.S.C. S 552. My FOIA requester status as a "representative of the news media." I am a freelance television producer often working on documentaries related to my FOIA requests, my work is commonly featured throughout major news organizations, and I freelance writer for news sites as well. Examples can be given, if needed.

I prefer electronic delivery of the requested material either via email to [Redacted] or via CD-ROM or DVD via postal mail. Please contact me should this FOIA request should incur a charge.

(b)(6)

Previously, I requested the below documents under FOIA case number F-2016-00058. I later appealed the no records determination, as I believed that records existed.

Based on the working of your appeal, I feel that you only looked for the document at the URL I referenced. I hope the below document can be searched for, beyond the restrictions of what I believe was the scope of my original request - only at the URL provided. I hope this request can be processed, and the document released.

I respectfully request a copy of records, electronic or otherwise, of the NRO IB5-S Overview, as referenced on the "See Also" heading of the GeoLITE Intellipedia entry.

Although the URL may not exist anymore, the document does, and I hope that it can be searched for.

Thank you so much for your time, and I am very much looking forward to your response.

Sincerely,

John Greenewald, Jr.

26 July 2016

Mr. John Greenewald, Jr.

(b)(6)

Dear Mr. Greenewald:

This is in response to your email message dated 19 May 2016 and received in the National Reconnaissance Office (NRO) on 20 May 2016. Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), you appealed the NRO's 19 May 2016 response to your 18 April 2016 request for "the NRO IBS-S Overview, referenced on the "See Also" heading of the GeOLITE Intellipedia entry (at) <https://www.nscb.ic.gov/briefs/2%20-%20Dissem%20Systems%20Oveview%202006-25-07.pdf>."

In our response to your initial request we informed you that we were unable to access the link you referenced, and that a thorough search of our records and databases located no records responsive to your request.

After a thorough review of your case, and as the NRO Appellate Authority, I am upholding our initial determination. The target for the link provided in your request has been changed or removed, so we are unable to retrieve a document from that location. In response to your appeal, we have conducted a second search for a responsive document in all NRO components where the record would reasonably be expected to exist, and we have included active and retired records in our search. We believe, therefore, that while we have been unable to locate the document you are seeking, we have conducted a good-faith, organized and thorough search for responsive information as required by the FOIA. Please note that by responding that we are unable to locate the responsive document, we are not asserting that the document did not exist at the time the GeOLITE Intellipedia entry originated.

You are advised that you are entitled to a judicial review of this determination in a United States District Court in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 552, as amended.

As part of the 2007 FOIA amendments, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) was created to offer mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. Using OGIS services does not affect your right to pursue litigation. You may contact OGIS in any of the following ways:

If you have any questions or you would like to discuss your request, please contact the NRO FOIA Public Liaison, Patricia Camerisi, by way of the Requester Service Center at (703) 227-9326 or via our email address foia@nro.mil and reference case number F-2016-00058.

To whom it may concern,

This is an appeal under the Freedom of Information Act 5 U.S.C. § 552 for FOIA Case F-2016-00058. Your final determination was a no records response, in regards to an NRO specific document, as referenced in Intellipedia.

I believe that, by the title alone, this would be an NRO document, and under the control of your agency. A "no records" determination, I believe, is incorrect, based on the fact that it is referenced in the Intellipedia entry for GEOLITE. (See: Caution-<http://documents.theblackvault.com/documents/intellipedia/geolite-intellipedia.pdf>)

I please ask that you reconsider this decision, and offer an appropriate answer to this FOIA request.

Sincerely,

John Greenewald, Jr.
