

DEPARTMENT OF AIR FORCE
OFFICE OF THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY

MEMORANDUM

Col Waltham

As you recalled Halperin felt that he had some encouragement for this action in the form of what Mr McNamara is supposed to have said. However, neither he nor Mr Wankel were certain that this was a correct interpretation of Mr McNamara's intent

DEPARTMENT OF AIR FORCE
OFFICE OF THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY

MEMORANDUM

We agreed that:

- 1) A meeting at this time was not desirable
- 2) Mr Wankel would explore the subject further with Mr McHamara
- 3) If it were decided to pursue this matter further, a "straw man" position paper would be developed with the DAD.

DEPARTMENT OF AIR FORCE
OFFICE OF THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY

MEMORANDUM

4) We will brief
Mr Wamke and Mr Halperin on background and status of our activities (at a time to be arranged for convenience.)

It also clarified,
at least to Mr Wamke's satisfaction, why Frank Lindsey was not and should not be the author of an article like the one he wrote.

— [REDACTED]